Directions

Make sure you have reviewed the directions in the Acadience Reading K–6 Assessment Manual and have them available. Say these specific directions to the student:

- I would like you to read a story to me. Please do your best reading. If you do not know a word, I will read the word for you. Keep reading until I say “stop.” Be ready to tell me all about the story when you finish. (Place the passage in front of the student.)
- Begin testing. Put your finger under the first word (point to the first word of the passage). Ready, begin.

Timing	1 minute. Start your stopwatch after the student says the first word of the passage. Place a bracket (]) and say Stop after 1 minute.
Wait	If no response in 3 seconds, say the word and mark it as incorrect.
Discontinue	If no words are read correctly in the first line, say Stop , record a score of 0, and do not administer Retell. If fewer than 10 words are read correctly on passage #1, do not administer Retell or passages #2 and #3. If fewer than 40 words are read correctly on any passage, use professional judgment whether to administer Retell for that passage.
Reminders	If the student stops (not a hesitation on a specific item), say Keep going . (Repeat as often as needed.) If the student loses his/her place, point. (Repeat as often as needed.)

Hello Hong Kong

0 Warm air means a change in the weather, and summer means travel 12
12 to many families. For the Chen family, this summer was going to be an 26
26 exciting time of year. For the first time, they would take the underground 39
39 train ride from their home in southern China and travel to Hong Kong. 52
52 Jackie was very excited about the visit. Jackie Chan, the movie star, 64
64 was one of his heroes, and he liked to imagine that one day he would 79
79 meet the famous star from Hong Kong. They would become good 90
90 friends, smiling and laughing that their names were almost the same. 101
101 The family had spent much time learning about Hong Kong. Still, 112
112 they were surprised at what they found when they got off the train 125
125 and walked onto the city streets. Old Chinese ways blended with new 137
137 Western culture, the result of British rule of the island for hundreds of 150
150 years. The city was totally bilingual. Almost everyone spoke fluently 160
160 in English and Chinese. Tall buses with two levels of seats whizzed 172
172 through the busy streets, competing with trams and taxis for passengers. 183
183 Modern skyscrapers filled the city, and millions of people bustled about 194
194 their business and their lives. There were cars, but they certainly weren't 206
206 necessary with all the public transportation readily available. 214
214 Rising high beyond the city skyline were steep, green mountains, 224
224 and much of the island was preserved for parks. However, the family 236
236 was only treated to the full beauty of Hong Kong Island when they took 250
250 a ferry ride across Victoria Harbour. From the water, the family could see 263

270	The Chens had a wonderful time exploring the city, shopping and	281
